THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE. We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the lost ty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give then weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malignity may now presume to forge against the warworn and time-honored patriot and soldier. The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Federalism, and which we shall stereotype as an impregnable barricade a and the bravery of Gen. William Henry Har. gainst all opposition, are no less than the Con- mson: GRESSOF THE UNITED STATES, the LEGISLATURES OF I DIA A, and of KENTUCKY, JAMES MADI-S ON, JAMS MONROE, COL. RICHARD M. JOHN. "During the late war, he was longer in active service than any other General officer, he was perhaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat."

JAMES MADISON, in a special message to Con gress, Dec. 18, 1811, said,

While it is deeply lamented that so many valu able lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dauntless spirit of fortifude victo-riously displayed by every description of troops engaged, as well as the collected firmness which distinuished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and discipline. James Manison in his message to Congress

The following resolve of both houses of the Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the slander respecting the "white horse," and the fall of the gallant Col. Daviess:

SALT RIVER MERALD.

Under this title the undersigned proposes to pub-ish, in the Town of Paris, Monroe County, Missouri, a Weekly Journal, to be devoted, principally to Political, Agricultural, Commercial, and Scientific information, but to embedy the usual variety which is found in a Family Newspaper.

In Politics, the paper will be thoroughly Whig. The Editor in no respect doubts the election of GENERAL HARRISON to the Presidency, and as little oubts that the course of his administration will be such as to deserve the support of the Republican party, of which he is a member. If so, it shall have his. He will be pleased, also, to act with the same enlightened party in reference to measures of State policy, and will do so, to the extent of his capacity, and the acquiescence of his judgment.

As the name he has chosen was intended to in-licate, his paper will "HEBALD" alike the wrongs and the virtues of the world around it-regardless of whom it may effect, in praise or in censure. A Newspaper, on any other principle, is a misnomer and a mockery.

The artiring zeal with which the Democratic party in this State, carried on the war in our late elections-together with the villany, industry, and he celerity with which they carried into execution heir plans, will remain as an alarming and an enduring monument of Democratic enterprise! Like the fabled Dragon, which is said never to close his lidless eyes, the stirring and pillering spirit of De-mocracy, slumbers (if at ail) with unclosed eyes! The base, contemptible, and false-hearted flattery. with which these political hypocrites attempt to in-sinuate themselves into favor; and the skill with which these panderers and parasites-these sycophints and demonstrates of bemorracy, tomorre to get upon the blind side of human nature, and to take an advantage of its weakness and passions, must all be laid naked before the gaze of an honest, an unsuspecting, but heretofore deluded people. In one word, the time has again a, proached, when we must all enter upon a great political contest. Like that through which we have just passed in our 1 SADDLING BUSINESS in all State, it will be a contest of principle against power various branches, at the old shop of a contest of the people against the office-holders.
